Environmental Risk - Contaminated Land Search

Disclaimer:

The purpose of this report is to provide a summary of some of the publicly available environmental risk information, based on the site boundary shown on the maps within this report. The report does not constitute an exhaustive set of all repositories or sources of information available.

You understand that Lotsearch has defined the site boundary by reference to information supplied in the order.

You accept that Lotsearch may amend some of the information supplied in the order to identify the relevant site for the report.

The report is not a substitute for an on-site inspection or review of other available reports and records.

The report is not intended to be, and should not be taken to be, a rating or assessment of the desirability or market value of the property or its features.

You should obtain independent advice before you make any decision based on the information within the report.

A link to the detailed terms applicable to the use of this report is available at the end of this report.

Environmental Risk - Contaminated Land Search

ADDRESS
878 Majura Road, Australian Capital Territory, ACT 2609

- This report provides information sourced from freely available, public registers held by state environmental regulators and certain federal government agencies.
- Land contamination can contain substances that harm human health and the environment and these may migrate across property boundaries. Search results are provided for your property and the surrounding 100m.
- Search results are categorised below, with search results and a site map provided on the following pages.

HOW THIS REPORT HELPS

- Be informed of potential contamination issues - this search simplifies access to multiple government information sources
- Contamination risk is an important consideration in land-use planning, development matters and property valuations and transactions
- Delays and clean-up costs from land contamination can be high - be prepared with early information that supports your due diligence
- Be aware of potential problems from neighbouring properties - contamination ignores property boundaries

1. Contaminated Land Registers

No Records Identified

State environmental regulators have registers of known or notified contaminated land. These sites are typically those that pose the greatest environmental risk, and will often be actively managed, regulated or remediated.

2. Regulated Activities

Records Identified

State regulators issue environmental licences, permits or authorisations, to owners or operators that undertake activities which have a potential risk to human health or the environment. Conditions on these licences can relate to pollution prevention, control, and monitoring.

WHAT NEXT?

This information in this report is only part of the picture. Other records are held by government agencies, councils and Lotsearch.

- Visit our website or contact our support team to access more Lotsearch products & additional government searches
- Contact an environmental consultant for additional advisory services. Consultants are listed by industry bodies ALGA , ACLCA & EIANZ.

3. Contamination Investigations

Records Identified

Government departments may undertake or enforce investigations into specific or suspected contamination issues. For example, investigation or management programs maybe undertaken at airports or defence sites suspected of PFAS contamination. Further information on PFAS can be accessed here.

4. Other Contamination Issues

No data sources referenced

Government registers can identify other contamination issues. These registers can include but are not limited to pollution, penalty or clean up notices, and records that indicate restrictions on the use of groundwater.
