

eConveyancing by the numbers

Both the NSW and Victorian governments have announced timelines to transition to 100% digital conveyancing by July 2019.

InfoTrack has been touring through NSW and VIC since August 2016 to demonstrate our eConveyancing platform and help practitioners begin the transition.

Did you know about the July 2019 timeline?

of practitioners are aware of the proposed timeline for fully electronic conveyancing.

Are you prepared?

64%

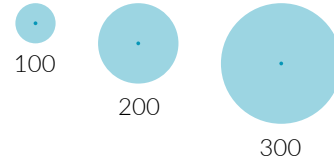

of practitioners feel that their firm is prepared to complete the full transition over the next two years.

What's the biggest hurdle?

*The three results above are from all attendees who completed a survey.

eConveyancing roadshows event attendance

eConveyancing in NSW

- 89,000 eCOS ordered by 2,500 firms
- 3,700 IDfy VOIs completed by 165 firms

The history of eConveyancing

2008
eNOS forms introduced in preparation of eConveyancing in NSW

2012/2013
Electronic Conveyancing (Adoption of National Law) Act was passed by the NSW & VIC Parliaments

2013
ARNECC released Model Participation Rules Version 1

2014
Introduction of PEXA

June 2016
Claire Martin completed the first fully electronic property transaction in Australia

January 2017
First Class Legal completed the first fully electronic conveyance in Victoria

July 2019
NSW and VIC governments plan to have transitioned to complete electronic conveyancing over 750 eConveyancing roadshow attendees in the Sydney CBD

eConveyancing in VIC

- 4,340 s32 & eCOS ordered by 745 firms
- 3,600 IDfy VOIs completed by 120 firms

over 550 eConveyancing roadshow attendees in the Melbourne CBD

NOW